Special Issue: Observation of National Legal Aid Day on 28 April 2016

Theme of the year “Garib Dukhbir Bichar Paoar Adhikar, Bartaman Sarkarer Angikar”. In Bangladesh the formal justice system is under tremendous pressure, it creates a negative impact for the rural poor and vulnerable group of people who cannot afford the expenses of cases & do not have clear understanding of how to get access to justice in the upper courts. Therefore Government, development partners, Light House and other legal aid NGOs have taken initiative for strengthening legal aid services for poor.

This year Ministry of Law and NLASO organized different program across the country for the observance of National Legal Aid Day on April 28, 2016. Along with NLASO, Community Legal Services (CLS) programme of UKAID, USAID Justice for All (JFA), UNDP, GIZ and other development partners join their hand to observe this day successfully.

Light House took part in national level event where Honorable Prime Minister was attended at Engineering institution in Dhaka. Rally, Seminar, Fair and discussion meeting were organized under the leadership of Law Minister and Secretary of Law, Justice and Parliamentary affairs. In the program Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina said, “There’re many poor and helpless persons in jails and they’ve been languishing there for years in various cases though they don’t exactly know what their offences are, or don’t have the financial capacity to have legal aid,” she said asking the Law Minister to look into the matter. She said more than the National Legal Aid Service Organization could extend their support to those staying in jails without any specific charges. Quoting section 27 and section 19 of the Constitution, she mentioned that the Constitution makes it clear to ensure the civic rights of every citizen which her government has been working tirelessly to ensure that. Then she inaugurated the national helpline call centre of the national legal aid service through talking to a female official over phone. The legal aid seekers could avail themselves of free services from the helpline round the clock dialing 16430 or sending SMS.

At the district level Light House observes this day with DLAC of Bogra, Sirajgonj, Pabna, Rajshahi, Chapai Nowabgonj, Noagoan and Joypurhat for increasing the awareness on free govt. legal aid services.
